

Let's go to the Arctic

Arctic Circle Map

The dotted lines show the position of the Arctic Circle. There are seven countries in the Arctic Circle.

Alaska
(U.S.A)

Canada

Greenland

Norway

Sweden

Finland

Russia

Can you see these countries on the two maps? Look closely at their flags.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Alaska

Canada

Greenland

Norway

Finland

Sweden

Russia

Can you draw your country's flag?

Can you trace the names of the countries in the Arctic Circle? Can you use the Arctic Circle map to draw and colour their flags?

Name: _____ Date: _____

Alaska

Russia

Canada

Greenland

Finland

Cut out these cards. Match the name, picture and flag together and glue them to a blank piece of paper.

Norway

Can you remember what each country looks like?

Sweden

Name: _____ Date: _____

Use the Arctic Circle Map to help you colour the countries that are partly inside the Arctic Circle. Can you answer the questions?

How many countries are in the Arctic Circle?

Which country is between Norway and Finland?

Which country is next to Alaska?

Is Africa in the Arctic Circle?

This is the Swedish flag.
Northern Sweden is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Russian flag.
Northern Russia is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Qaanaaq,
Greenland.
It is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Swedish flag.
Northern Sweden is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Russian flag.
Northern Russia is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Qaanaaq,
Greenland.
It is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Canadian flag.
Northern Canada is in the Arctic Circle.

This is Tromsø, Norway.
It is in the Arctic Circle.

This is Barrow, Alaska.
It is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Canadian flag.
Northern Canada is in the Arctic Circle.

This is Tromsø, Norway.
It is in the Arctic Circle.

This is Barrow, Alaska.
It is in the Arctic Circle.

This is the Greenlandic flag.
Northern Greenland is in the Arctic Circle.

The Arctic stretches over 5.4
million square miles.

The Arctic has many icebergs
and lots of snow.

This is the Greenlandic flag.
Northern Greenland is in the Arctic Circle.

The Arctic stretches over 5.4
million square miles.

The Arctic has many icebergs
and lots of snow.

People dress in warm clothes if they live in the Arctic.

The Arctic Circle is in the Northern Hemisphere.

The North Pole is inside the Arctic Circle.

People dress in warm clothes if they live in the Arctic.

The Arctic Circle is in the Northern Hemisphere.

The North Pole is inside the Arctic Circle.

Inuit is the name for the native Arctic people.

The Arctic is frozen for most of the year.

Polar bears live in the Arctic.
They eat seals and fish.

Inuit is the name for the native Arctic people.

The Arctic is frozen for most of the year.

Polar bears live in the Arctic.
They eat seals and fish.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Alaska

Canada

Greenland

Norway

Finland

Sweden

Russia

Can you draw your country's flag?

Can you trace the names of the countries in the Arctic Circle? Can you use the Arctic Circle
map to draw and colour their flags?

Name: _____ Date: _____

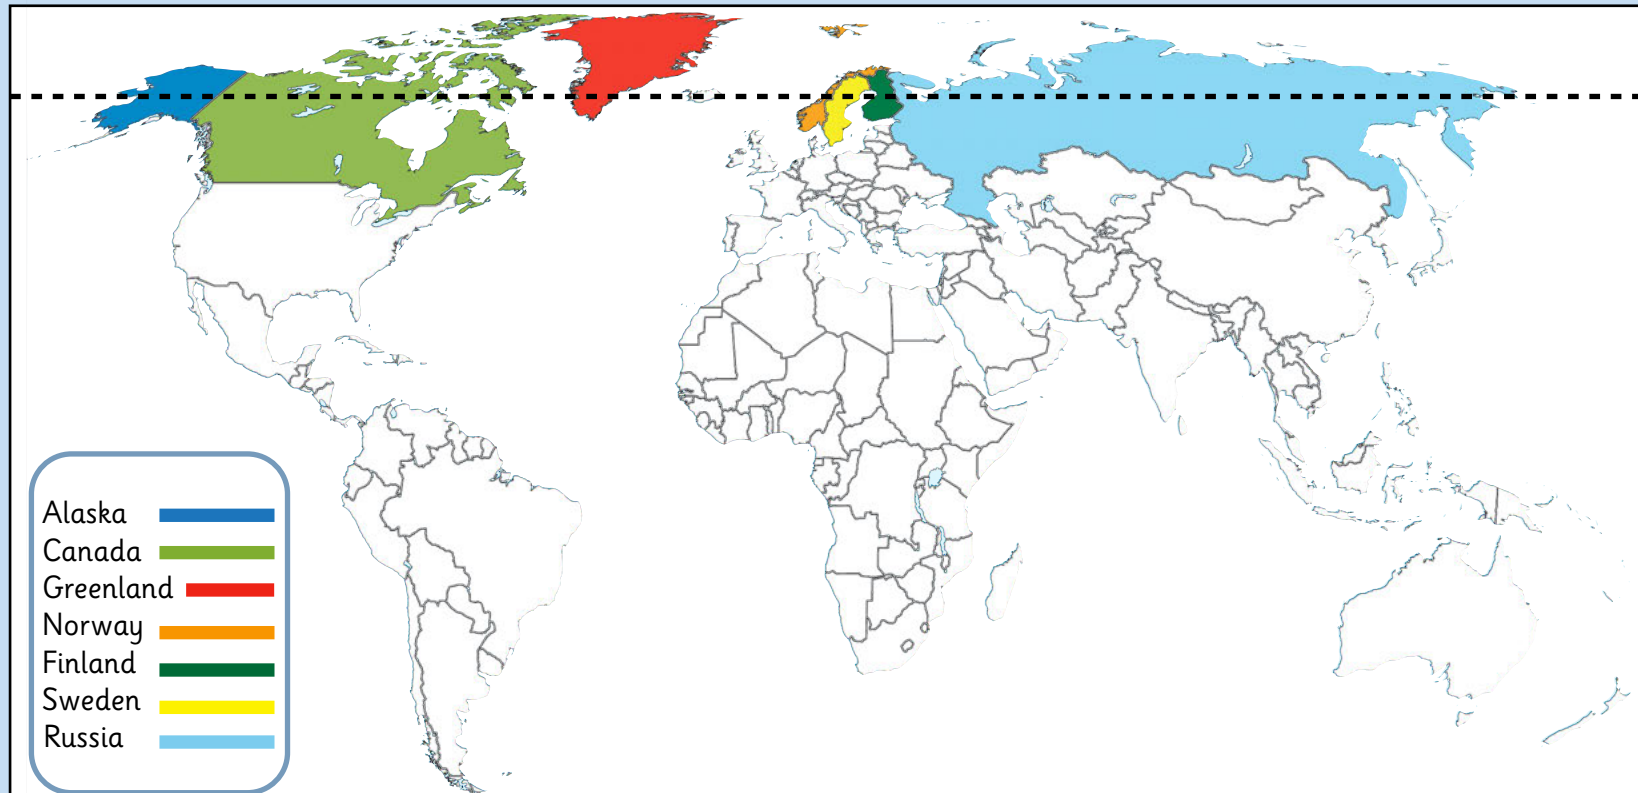

Alaska
Canada
Greenland
Finland
Russia
Norway
Sweden

Cut out these cards. Match the name, picture and flag together and glue them to a blank piece of paper.

Can you remember what each country looks like?

Name: _____ Date: _____

Use the Arctic Circle Map to help you colour the countries that are partly inside the Arctic Circle. Can you answer the questions?

How many countries are in the Arctic Circle?

Seven

Which country is between Norway and Finland?

Sweden

Which country is next to Alaska?

Canada

Is Africa in the Arctic Circle?

No

